“ I was so surprised to hear of Helen's passing. I think of her as the energetic and powerful person that she always was. I enjoyed knowing Helen and valued her friendship. I missed talking to her about the new things going on in the computer and genealogy world as well as keeping up with what our mutual friends were doing. Helen was a joy to talk to and laugh with. My sincere condolences to her family.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. I pray God's peace on your family, I know she will be missed. To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. What a happy day for her, to be in the presence of the one who died for us. You will continually be in my thoughts and prayers. May God bless.

“ Helen: A woman who loved the Lord, always about his work, always scattering the attributes of her father. Seeds of love, kindness, gentleness in spirit (but not without conviction and fire), feeding others with words of wisdom as well as feeding the flesh.

Always open, her heart and her home. Patient when most would have given up. Always thirsting for knowledge. And above all, the understanding that Every Man needs God no matter what walk of life. Great the Harvest from her labors shall be. A Woman of Honor and Joy, this is how I will remember Helen. The Apple of His Eye!

My deepest sympathies go to her family, her smile and sweetness will be missed.

In Love
