“Hope u will b greatly missed
When to I was 18 hrs older then u I still called u my sister. We raised together our moms was best friends. I can remember our 100s of days we played dress up with ur grandma church clothes. Our two years of cheerleading together. We went to school together. One memory I luv the most was in kindergarten and we had show and tell. You was brave and showed the whole class how u took shots and explained. Why. Ur mom was there to help u we was together everyday after school.
Wish this wasn't u I was writing a memory for. I am so heartbroken ur kids have to go threw life without mom to talk to.
I know u singing ur heart out. Such a beautiful voice.
All the times u would sing. I loved the most was when u sang "Amazing Grace "
I hope one ur kids have ur beautiful voice and luv for music like u did. I know u watching ur kids. God needed u more. I wish it wasn't ur funeral I have to go to.

“ There are so many memories we share but the two that stick out the most was when u would come over and hunt eggs with me at meme and pawpaw's in the country or when I would visit at Clifford and Jane's and there was that car we would sit in and push each other around the house ...I know we haven't been close since we were little life took us in different directions but I will always love u like u were my sister and I will miss you dearly.
