“ To Jacki's family -

I was so sorry to learn (completely by accident) of Jacki's passing. Jacki was a friend and co-worker of mine in Houston, Texas with whom I had lost touch. My computer which contained all my contacts and their information finally gave out.

Max, you may remember Jacki speaking of me, I know she talked a lot about you.

I'll always remember Jacki because she taught me how to cross stitch (a hobby I still maintain).

I can only entrust you and all of Jacki's family to the care of the Almighty and pray that in time the pain will ease and only pleasant memories will remain.

May God bless all of Jacki's family and friends whom I'll remember in my prayers.

“ *Max, Nancye, Judy and family...
My thoughts and prayers are with you all. I know Jacki is skipping along with a fishing pole in hand and her loved ones gathered around her. I take comfort knowing that she is healthy, full of joy and free of worries in heaven. And with God's help, we will all join her someday!*
Many Blessings To You All,
