“ Jim and I were the Camp Police Sergeants at Camp Butler after we were both wounded in Vietnam. He was a great friend and Marine. I often think about him and the times we had overseas. He will live forever in my heart.

“ Jim was My buddy.He loved many and was loved by many. We spent so much time together in the last year. drinking coffee together 3,4 sometimes even 5 days a week.And when I ask him how he was, he always said he was marvelous. A true National Treasure,a hero to many,expecially myself. heaven is truely a better place now and he has left this world a better place because of him.I will miss him so much. But I know when my time comes Jim will have coffee made for me when I get there.but for now rest in peace my buddy. and may the peace of our lord jesus comfort all.

“ I had the pleasure of knowing Jim for only a short period of time. The gift of his friendship was immeasurable. Jim was a special gift from God and those who knew him appreciated that gift. I know he is at rest now with his maker. May the family find comfort in knowing he is at peace and will be watching over his loved ones. My prayers to his family.
