“ The sweet personality that Jared was blessed with was apparent when he was a baby. I cared for him often for Nelwyn during his first two years of life, until my first child was born. One of my favorite memories is nap time. I pretended to be asleep while he played with his stuffed animal. When he became too tired he would throw the toy across the room and go right to sleep. He will always be that loving, funny child to me. So loving, that he was the only child of a group at school who owned up to what they ALL did. He took the rap for the group that made a bad decision. That is the Jared I know and love.

“ Jared, you were such a beautiful baby boy and I so loved spending time with you when visiting at my older sister's home. I remember telling Mom one day ... "I don't think I should ever have children of my own Mom. I'm afraid that I will never love them as much as I love Jared." I remember Mom laughing at me ... later, I understood why she'd laughed ... but it was a close race Jared! You have always been very special to me and to many others as well. I will miss your quick wit and your loving heart. I will miss your hugs ... and that smile. All who know you know that you deserve the peace you are now experiencing. I love you.

“ Ms Nelwyn and Mr Sam, I'm so heartbroken. I loved Jared, aka J-Rod, aka Tee!!! Jared used to come over to my house after a school and fix himself a bowl of oatmeal. It was so random, but became so funny. My sisters loved it and loved him. Jared always had a special place in my heart. He was my buddy. I'm so sad for you guys, Chet, Abby and his kids. What a great guy. I will always think fondly of my sweet Tee!❤️
