“ I offer my condolences as well as those from my mother, Rosalind Sarradet. I remember her fondly talking about the fun she and my father had with Doug and Jeane in their dance classes. I'm sure they shared the most beautiful first dance once again.

“ I first met Jeane when she and Doug took country western dance lessons. They were so good! She told me they took the lessons to have another reason to dance. Jeane and I enjoyed our volunteer work at the Jennings Hospital and singing in the choir at Our Lady Help of Christians Church. She was funny and easy-going. We also enjoyed going to Jennings home football games. She really kept up with the game and wasn't reluctant to express her disagreement with the referees! I missed my friend when her health took her away from the activities she loved. Her humor is remembered at the hospital while her singing and cheering have moved to greater heights. My sincere sympathies to all of her family. I believe Jeane and Doug are dancing together again.
