

John Enis Domingue, Jr

November 29, 2008

John was a crewboat captain for Seacor for 34 years. He was an outdoorsman and loved being on the water. The art of making cast nets was one of his many hobbies. Survivors include his wife, Connie Sonnier Domingue of Hathaway; one son, Samuel Jacob Domingue also of Hathaway; three daughters, Denise Benoit and husband Chad, Heather Domingue, and Allison Dominigue and fiance Michael Jardell all of Hathaway; two brothers, Wilfren Lee "Pete" Domingue of Bettendorf, Iowa and Walter Leo Domingue of Evangeline; three sisters, Mary Jane Thibodeaux of Hayes, Dorothy and Joyce Landry both of Lake Charles; and two grandchildren, Lance Benoit and Gavin Domingue. Preceded in death by his parents.

Tribute Wall

“ John Enis Domingue, Jr

January 28, 2023 at 04:12 PM

“ Mr. John will be greatly missed by all. He was one of the greatest, selfless and kind hearted men I have had the joy of knowing in my life. May God keep his arms around each of you and hold you up in strength in the days to come. Ms. Connie, Denise, Sam, Allision and Heather we love each one of you dearly. Love and prayers, Lisa, Jace and Dylan

Lisa Paddio - December 03, 2008 at 08:05 AM

“ So sorry to hear of your loss. John was a childhood friend of mine and I will always remember him as a soft-spoken great person.

Our prayers are with your family.

Michael McCall - November 30, 2008 at 10:58 PM