“ Dear dear Earle family, I just got this information from David today and guess he just saw it. I am in Egypt, however, I fly out tonight. Only several weeks ago, I was thinking that I would try to make it to Jennings to visit with John Edwards and now I find I am too late. I guess I was feeling him in my mind and the last time I saw him when he said how much he loved me and how much his mother my grandmother Annabelle loved me. I cry as I write, for it makes me very sad to loose such a loving man and a war hero like my father. I know it was such a sad day for you all, but know how much he missed his lovely wife and your mom Beverly. God Be with you in your sorrow and I cry tears with you. Love and Prayers, Martha Cary
