“ To Karen and all of the LaBowe family, my thoughts and prayers are with all of you at this time of sadness. I have many fond memories of our growing up years, Karen. I especially remember going to your house after school and playing in the big side yard and your dad being out there with us. I know it is never easy to lose our loved ones for we are left to mourn and miss them but we rejoice for them as they have earned their reward. To dwell in the presence of the Lord!. I know your dad is at peace and dwells in His presence. I will continue to hold each of you close to my heart and continue to pray for God's comfort for you.
