“ For those who left their condolences for John, thank you. I can relate to them, John will be missed dearly by family and friends. He lived a rough life and went through alot. But he is at peace now. Below are a few verses from the Bible that I share with those that have lost dear ones.

At John 5:28,29 Jesus Christ promised that millions now dead will live again on this earth and have the prospect of remaining on it forever under peaceful, paradisaic conditions. And Revelation 21:3,says,"And he will wipe every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

Also at Isaiah 25:8 it tell us what will happen to death. It says, "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces...." I know that someday soon I will see my brother again and no will have to experience the pain and sorrow cause by this wicked world and sickness and death.

“ God's Garden!
God's Look around his garden and saw a empty space, He look down from Heaven and saw your smiling face. He put his arms around you and whispered come to rest. His garden must be beautiful, He picks you, only the very best. It broke our hearts to lose you. But you did not go alone, A Part of us went with you. The day God called you home, our thoughts are always with you. A million we cried, and if our love could have saved you. You never would have died.

“ My Love, I tried to warn you About messin' around, But you wouldn't listen, So you fell to the ground. The moon and the stars are up high, And beneath them I lie. My heart is ripping, While tears are dripping. As I listen to the winds lullaby. You will always be My first love, Thought you are now above. Love you with all my heart John
