“ Johnny was a good friend to me when he worked at my family’s store years ago. He always went above and beyond when ever someone needed a helping hand. He never asked for anything in return and always had a bright smile for everyone to brighten our days. Rest in peace my friend and be welcomed in heaven by the members of our families who have gone before us 🙏

“ Going up a parking garage in his hatchback screeching the tires and feeling safe while doing so unlike my uncle Danny. We were somewhere in Lafayette. I ended up broke down for two days in the parking garage at the hospital he was at reliving that moment over and over. How him and Angie used to pick at me and all me Nicole and my reaction was blowing my cheeks out. He was more than a uncle to me. He was a best friend who had unconditional love for me like we were raised to have and knew my side and never seen me as crazy or said I needed mental help. We all have our issues in this bloodline and I think I deal with mine very well. He knew that. Nok John was the best. I still hear his laughs and his jokes. God bless him, protect him, and have him waiting for me when I get to this celestial realm with the rest of the few who understood me like he did as well as my grandparents, mother, brother, Pete!!!! and my beautiful Angela. All who were kind, patient, and understanding without judgement. The way we were raised and took pride on in the old world. They were the ones who would ask if they thought something instead of choosing to persecute their own family when we all make mistakes. It was all about love and hugs. No fake shit. It's ashamed what this world has turned into. God bless you uncle Kenneth. Your soul shines so bright it is almost blinding. I love you man and every single person in my family. The nonjudgmental unconditional love we were taught long ago. Never forget where you came from.
