“ Oh Aunt Tutie, my heart hurts. You are part of the " Greatest Generation " and one that we owe so much. The Great Depression and World War II affected your lives, yet you persevered through it all; thank you. While growing up, I often wondered why we as family did not spend more time together. As I grew older, I finally figured it out. Your generation worked " all the time " just to care for the family. You were a nurse and always helping others. Uncle Bruce worked " all over " on the railroad. Aunt Mary was raising a family and taking care of that huge garden in Baldwin. Uncle Boobie was always working at the car dealership and fixing people's problems. Uncle Sam worked either at the carbon-black plant in Baldwin/Franklin or at the rice dryer in Gueydan. My dad was always working trying to keep the dry cleaning business going. Your generation worked hard, provided for the family, and raised kids the " right way ( by example ) ". After all these years, you are all back together again in God's presence; what a beautiful picture that paints. To Bobbi and Kenny, my thoughts and prayers pour out. Your mom was a caring person with a huge and beautiful heart. We will all miss her, but she is now in a better place surrounded by loved ones. All together once again; that's the memory that I will carry around in my heart and soul. God bless all of you; until we meet again.
