“ *One of the things I will always remember about Nanny, is how she would wash my hair when I was younger, I would go to Momo Richard's and the "boys" bathroom had a long counter with the sink in the middle, we would climb up on the counter, lay down (as we got older, we would prop our legs/feet on the wall) and she would use hot water and scrub your scalp really good. Man I miss those hair washes, too bad I had to grow up.
I saw oysters in gumbo for the first time I went with them eat at her brothers in Scott. I was grossed out. Love You Nanny! May you rest in eternal peace.*
