“ *I loved Karen and always will. We met about 7 years ago at Texas Roadhouse where we worked together.. we never lost touch and never stopped making memories as sisters to. I was honored to ask her to be in my wedding and she made a beautiful bridesmaid. Karen was a very loving unforgettable girl who brightened my life and others as well.
May she rest in peace and watch over us all forever & ever. Amen*

“ Karen was one of my dance students for many years as well as her sisters Michelle and Katie. I was heartbroken this morning when I got this news. Karen was a beautiful person inside out, always had a beautiful smile on her face when she came to dance class. She will be dearly missed by many. My prayer's are with the Schexnider family during this horrible time.
