“ Katie's daughter, Neveah, visited the Sunday School class that Ms. Debbie O'Connor and I teach. She is such a sweet little girl. I would like her to know that we are praying for her, her sister, and for the rest of the family. I don't know Katie but I know many of the Caswell family and love them all. May God watch over this family in the days ahead.

“ My best friend, my sister, my soulmate. There wasn't a room she couldn't walk into and brighten up with just a smile. Her outlook on life was to enjoy and live everyday as if it was your last. My heart is broken because she is gone but content because she is no longer in pain. She was a hardworking, dedicated, loving mother who wanted nothing more than for her girls to be kind, strong, and independent young ladies and I know she accomplished that for sure. Rest easy my love and smile from heaven knowing you kicked ass as a Momma! You have the voice of an angel and heavens choir just acquired a new voice with sass and class. I love you KT JO.... until we meet again.... Julzi

Breath you take,
She sings a song
of hope and cheer,
there's no more pain,
no more fear.
You'll see her in
the clouds above,
hear her whisper
words of love.
You'll be together
