“ Keto was like my little brother. and Allie taught me how to work hard while I lived with them most of my young life. I had the opportunity to bring them to his first horse race and then we would go to wrestling events all the time. He never said anything hurtful or got loud and angry. He was a very good true friend and would help people any way he could. Keto my brother I will miss you. I have truly lost my little brother. We had fun times and played cards and made chemical bombs when we was playin out in the yard May you rest in peace brother and may God's perpetual light shine upon you.
