

Keith Ammuel Walls

October 11, 2008

Mr. Walls was a retired carpenter and a union foreman. He enjoyed playing the banjo, fishing, and studying his Bible. He was a music lover, especially of Bluegrass music. He was involved in a group that played bluegrass music and he also enjoyed listening to the Grand Ole Opry. He loved taking part in the Bluegrass Festivals and spending time with his family and friends. Survivors include his wife, Carrie Jean Walls of Jennings; one son, Darrel Walls and wife Sandra also of Jennings; two daughters, Shelia Wills and Cindy Walls both of Jennings; one brother, Emzy Walls of Maryland; six grandchildren, two step grandchildren, seven great grandchildren, and one step great grandchild.

Tribute Wall

“ Keith Ammuel Walls

January 28, 2023 at 04:12 PM

“ My condolences to the Walls Family. My wife grew up next door to Mr. Walls and can only say great things about him. I had occasional conversations with him and can remember how nice of a person he was. May God bless his family.

Lynn & Dee Ray

Lynn Ray - October 11, 2008 at 09:11 AM

“ My deepest condolences to the Walls Family. I only knew him for a short time and wished I would have had time to know him better. I was at my father's funeral when he died. I know that he will be in heaven with my dad. God bless you and your family.

Doctor Ray

Charles Ray - October 10, 2008 at 09:02 PM