“ You will never know the masses of people you have touched with your grace, dignity, and incredible strength. You are the true definition of a SUPERHERO. What a fighter...What a mother...What a beautiful testimony you lived as a model of hope for others who've only had a taste of your battle. Your incredible love for your kids, despite the overwhelming obstacles of yet another cruel diagnosis of one of your "babies," can only be described as larger than life. May you finally get the rest and peace you never allowed yourself to have on earth. Fly to Jesus, rest in His arms, and let your soul be freed from all the burdens you've endured. You fought your battle bravely, honorably, and dutifully within the ranks of the best of all warriors. I have never known a more unselfish person as you NEVER allowed attention towards you to even be possible. EVERYTHING was centered around your fierce love and protection of your kids. Time for YOU now...let go, rest, sing, dance, be free....the peace you never allowed yourself to have. God's got YOU NOW. Let your glory begin....

“ I first met Kristal at the fairgrounds during Fair Week when Abby was about 9 or 10 years old. She struck me as a very genuine and friendly person. After I heard about her illness, I began to pray for her and for Haydn. Praying for these two people has continued for almost a decade of my life and probably for many others. This brave woman always wore a smile and fought for every day she could grab with her children and family. Her courage has touched my life in more ways than one. I will continue to pray for her children and all who loved her. Let perpetual light shine upon her.

“ She is so young, but what a legend she has left to so many in such a short time. She surpassed the odds and touched so many people in that time. My deepest sympathy to the family and friends she left behind. I heard many stories about her joy for life and the wonderful memories she made for her children, family, and friends. Rest in Peace Kristal and fly with the angels.
