“ Bernan and Jamie, I’m so so sorry to hear this sad news. Kristin was a beautiful young woman who fought very hard to be with the people she loves. The only time I ever saw Kristin was right before we moved to Phoenix. Lindsey had a pool party for her birthday and either Trevor or Tyler was in her class. Jamie brought Kristin and I couldn’t take my eyes off of her. She reminded me so much of Allyson at that age—the way she looked, the way she moved, and the way she sounded. It was a trip back in time for me. I moved away and missed getting to know her and Allyson’s other siblings as they grew up. It’s obvious she was much loved in Jennings and leaves a beautiful son to carry all that love. You will all be in my thoughts and prayers.

“ This is a tough one. Kristen was a light, a warrior, and so doggone funny. As a student, she was laid back and unaffected by stress and recess drama. She was my anchor the year she was in my class. I could always draw strength from her peace and calm. My deepest sympathy to Ian and Miles, to Jaime and Bubs, to Carol and Berman, to Trevor, Tyler, and Hayden and to all who loved this dear girl. I feel like Kristen has brought us all closer to the Lord as we have prayed for her these last two years. I believe her sufferings have earned her a crown so I say with a hopeful heart: Pray for us, St. Kristen. You will be sorely missed. Go with God for God has always gone with you. Love and prayers for all of your family. Give a hug to Casey, Megan, Jill, Clay, Dustin, Jared, Justin, Alexandra, Chance, and all the Crusaders who meet you at the gate.

“ Kristin was such a fighter through the most painful days, God has called her home to rest, may he send comfort to her family now in the days and years ahead. Her family on both sides were such great care takers, may you always see her through the smiles and eyes of their beautiful son Miles, and to Ian may you help him to remember his mom through your memories, with much love and prayers, Tracey Guidry
