“ I nwas just thinking of Larry and decided to look him up. Sadly I came accross this page. I knew Larry for a little over two years in college at Rolla, Missouri. We were actually room mates for a year. If I remember correctly he was studying Mechanical Engineering. Larry was a very nice gentle guy. I'm happy to read that he had a good successful life; however; sad that he's passed before I could tell him that.

“ For Peggy,
I do not know you Madame, but I do know “genuine” disrespect when I see it. How inappropriate of you to post such a railing accusation in our time of grief; let me explain something to you sense you are obviously too dense to realize this on your own; that was a part of their lives they proudly shared together and the culture of that area which they embraced; do you really think she would have participated in that photo if she had a problem with it? Not the Barbra I knew. You have been weighed, measured and found wanting.

“ Larry adored Barbra as well as she did with him. It was always a joy when I was able to come in town to visit with them and bring Rylee, Justin’s little girl. They both doted over her and always looked forward to seeing her. Now, they would have 2 more grands to spoil, Avery and Levi! Thank you Larry for always welcoming us into y’all’s home! As beautiful as your Bride Babu was inside and out, why would anyone post the picture of her in that Burka? They both would not want that!!! So disrespectful to them both! RIP Larry! You are with your love of your life now!

“ Larry was the love of My friend Barbara’s life. They were married in our home in Welsh.He treated her like a queen and she always kept him amused. He would roll his eyes and smile. They enjoyed being surrounded by family and friends with lots of laughter and good food. Larry holds a special place in Mine and Dave’s hearts.

I am very saddened by this news, having visited with him just last month. Larry was a lifelong friend of mine, with whom I shared many good times. I casually introduced he and Barbara one day and she made me proud by pointing it out many times over the years, saying how happy they were together. I am sorry I missed the service, having just found out about it. He will be missed.
