“ Larry my “unc” I miss you so much. Momma B and I are always thinking about you. I’m hurting so much knowing I wasn’t there to take you your meds and be with you before I got sent away. I’m thankful I was able to see you in May when we went to Louisiana. Tomorrow is your beloved birthday. Mom and I are thinking of you every single day. I wish this wasn’t so hard on all of us. I hope that your family has a memorial at a later date as they posted. We really want to be apart of it. You were my “uncle” and my moms Best friend.

“ Larry and I worked together in the safety department when it was BP and then bought out by Marathon Petroleum. He always made me laugh even during the troubling days when I didn't have anything to laugh about.

I was fortunate to stay in touch with him after he retired. And visited him in the hospital last month. He was in good spirits and joking around making me and the hospital staff laugh. Below is a 'stay hydrated' promo that played on the Marathon in-house tv. I took a picture of it and wanted to share. I will miss you my dear friend.
