“ Carl and I were classmates at Goretti High. We used to joke about being "cousins by marriage" as his dad's brother, Wallace, was married to my mother's sister, Olla. He was a very kind and steady young man and he remained so at my last visit with him approximately five years ago at the last school-wide reunion in Lake Arthur. My sincerest condolences. Aloha `oe, Carl. Dick Trahan, Honolulu.

“ Carl Kibodeaux, one of the kindest and most generous men I have ever known, passed away yesterday morning. Since 2008 he spent most of the hunting season living in a camper next to Woody's shop. I will miss his wonderful smile, his sense of humor, his genuine giving nature, and his love of cooking. He loved life, his family, buying hunting "stuff", and his friends. He blessed the lives of many. Woody and Cathy Webb

Have such good memories of living next to Carl growing up on Lucy Street. So glad I got to visit with him a couple of years ago when he passed through Mississippi. He was always smiling! Will always remember him. Carol Minter Taylor
