Thank you, my Dear Uncle for your profound wisdom you shared with me, your time; and love you shared with me and my entire family. You and Aunt Deanie were perfect examples of Christian love given to others. I will always think on you and remember the fond memories and things we discussed on God, life; and philosophy. I love you very much. I will miss you.

“ Lloyd was a wonderful neighbor to me for many years. We visited over the back fence. We had many discussions about our faith----he a devout Catholic and I a devout Baptist. He was so devoted to Deenie and after her death we could talk about the death of our spouses. He loved his family dearly. I know the children and grandchildren will remember his deep faith and his love for all of you.

“ Sometime in the 80s, I met Mr. Lloyd. He must have come to the house to fix my telephone. We struck up a friendship. At his suggestion, he built a one-of-a-kind phone organizer that still hangs on the wall in my kitchen. I would often go visit him on job sites of the houses he flipped. We had many good conversations over the years. We shared joys and sorrows and I came to rely on his strength and wisdom. I know he is now happy with Our Lord and Ms. Deenie but he will be missed greatly here on earth. My prayers for all of his family as they grieve his loss. Don't grieve too long; remember the good and happy memories, he'd say. Rely on the Lord and do some good for others. He'd say that, too. So long for now, my very dear friend. There's a place in my heart that will always be reserved for you.
