“ Ta's Daddy and my Daddy were brothers. We lived in New Iberia but would go to Jennings 2 Or 3 times a month to visit - my Mom was from Jennings so that made it convenient. Ta, Shirlene and Donna (my sister) were the big girls , so they didn't pay too much attention to me but that was OK cause I adored my Aunt Mildred. I see the Youngs in Ta but more I always saw Aunt Mildred's heart in Ta...she was always kind to me and when she married Clifton, we were all envious - wow! what a catch. My husband and I live in NW Montana up by the Canadian border so I don't get home much. In 2018, we did go home and met Ta, Clifton, Shirlene and Irvin at Roy's in Kinder for lunch. It was so nice to see all of them. We are planning a trip South in the Fall if the virus is under control and look forward to seeing Shirlene, Irvin and Clifton. God bless the Miller family in their time of need and keep them safe.
