“ I am sorry for your loss. Although she could be hell on wheels, she also could be kind, considerate and compassionate. I'll never forget the kindness that she showed to my aging mother. Rest In Peace.

“ God bless Aunt Lou. She always told great stories, had a ready laugh. I was glad to have been at the Festival Acadiens to see her in 2018. It was wonderful that Julie and her daughter brought her to Lafayette. A lifetime of memories - we lived in New Orleans when she and the family lived in Metarie and we would visit. Our condolences to the entire family. Tomorrow I will go to a Catholic church here in Palo Alto and light a candle for her.
