

Lydia Deaville

July 18, 2009

Maw Maw passed away at the home of her loving and devoted granddaughter, Robin, who cared for her so lovingly. She was surrounded by her family and friends. Mrs. Lydia was born in Rayne, La to the late Marcelin & Aurelia Thibodeaux LeBlanc. She was a very loving and thoughtful person; always putting the needs of others before her own. She loved spending time with her family. They were the greatest gift God has ever given her. Mrs. Lydia enjoyed collecting angels and crosses. She also loved the Cajun culture and music and dancing with her grandchildren and great grandchildren. She was a retired daycare worker and worked with her dear and loving friend, Brenda Rasberry for many years. She will be greatly missed by everyone who knew and loved her. Leaving behind to cherish her memory is her beloved children, John James Deaville and his wife Laura of Hathaway, Shelton Deaville and his wife Susan of Jennings, Juanita Broussard and her husband Larry also of Jennings, and Rhonda Miller and her husband Charles of Hathaway; her sixteen grandchildren, John, Tina, Kendy, Kristie, Kaley, Trevor, Dorian, Ben, Scott, Dusty, Robin, Ashley, Kody, Laci, Blake, and Valerie; numerous great grandchildren; she had several step grandchildren and step great grandchildren; and her loving niece, Shirley Menard. Preceded in death by her parents; husband, John P. Deaville; one son, Norman Deaville; and 11 brothers and sisters. Carrying Mrs. Lydia to her final resting place will be her grandsons, John W. Deaville, Blake P. Deaville, Cody R. Johnson, Trevor Deaville, Dusty Chaisson, Scott Chaisson, Ben Chaisson, Dorian Deaville, and Jeff Richard. She was very devoted to the Mother of Jesus and the Holy Rosary. There will be a mass at Our Lady Help of Christians Catholic Church. Altar servers will be Micah Rasberry and Jared Richard. Bringing gifts to the altar will be Madison Richard and Valerie Deaville. Robin Richard will do the reading. The family would also like to thank Cissy, Roxy, Kathleen, and Shannon from La. Hospice and Palliative Care for their excellent care and devotion. Also Jeff Davis Home Health workers Kenny and Debbie.

“ Shelton,

Really sorry for your loss. Hope your heart mends quickly. I know it's tough to lose the parents but life will proceed.
