“ Dear Mervyn and family,

Our prayers and love are with you in this time. Though words may never bring the comfort we seek in these times, they are our best way to express how we feel. Though we are saddened at the loss of Aunt Lynne, we are grateful for the time we had with her. We remember her bright smile and generous laughter and know heaven is fuller and brighther now, because of them. Know we are always with you, as she will always be with us. May God bless you.

Love, Neil, Andrea, Marissa and Kaila

“ Dearest Fontenot Family: Isaiah 41:10, 13 fear not, for I am with you; be not dismayed, for I am your God; I will strengthen you, I will help you, I will uphold you with my righteous right hand ... For I, the LORD your God, hold your right hand; it is I who say to you, “Fear not, I am the one who helps you.” I will be praying for you all.

“ To the family of Lynne: I am so sorry for your loss. The Bible calls death "an enemy" (1Corinthians 15:26)and we can tell why. It makes us so sad and we miss our loved one very much. Jehovah(God) comforts us very much though. These are some of my favorite scriptures and I hope they help you too. Psalm 34:18 and Phillipians 4:13. Sincerely,
