Mabel Theresa Young Ramour

Jennings: Mabel was born in Hathaway, LA on November 6, 1932, to Lombera Young and Ezar LaVergne Young. She was called to her Heavenly Father on December 30, 2021. Mabel was a native of Hathaway, LA and resided all her life in the Jennings/Hathaway area. She was a longtime parishioner of St. Lawrence Catholic Church and member of the Catholic Daughters as well as an active member of Faith Renewal. She also volunteered at Jeff Davis Living Center, where she enjoyed visiting with the residents and nurses, spreading her joy and kindness as often as she could. Mabel was a beloved homemaker and dedicated her life to caring for her family. She was an avid reader who loved reading Louis L'Amour; she enjoyed working on puzzles, watching western movies, French music, tending her plants in the garden and working outside alongside her husband; and especially loved taking care of her grandchildren, all of whom she babysat and loved dearly. Mabel was a kind and loving woman, and she will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved her.

Mabel is survived by her two sons, Dexter Ramour (Rita) of Jennings, LA, Charles Ramour (Mary) of Lake Arthur, LA; her daughter, Nora LeJeune of Hathaway, LA; 18 grandchildren; 38 great grandchildren; 6 great great-grandchildren and her two sisters, Mildred Young Sonnier of Elton, LA, and Laura Young Istre of Jennings, LA; and daughters-in-law Becky Sue Ramour
