October 21, 1946 - June 7, 2023

Magloria Faye Crochet Sonnier
October 21, 1946 - June 7, 2023

ROANOKE – Magloria, 76, was called home to God’s glory surrounded by her family on June 7, 2023. Daughter of Naomie “Mary” Marie Crotchet, Magloria was born in Roanoke on Oct. 21, 1946.

It is here that she met her future husband, Dewey Lynn Sonnier, a local farmer returning from his service in the United States Navy. The two were wed on Dec. 10, 1971, and celebrated 51 years of marriage together.

The couple built their home in the countryside between Jennings and Lake Arthur in an area adjacent to the lush rice fields that Dewey tended. In this home, they raised two children, Tracie, and Scott, who grew to start their own families.

Magloria’s home was the site of many family gatherings where she typically could be found in the kitchen cooking meals that would later become family staples. Love grows, she found great joy in welcoming new additions to her family through grandchildren and spouses.

A beloved mother, grandmother, and wife, Magloria cherished the time she spent with her family. Affectionately nicknamed “Maw Maw” by her grandchildren, she instilled her unwavering faith, fierce love of family, and strength in the face of adversity.

A devoted Christian woman, she was a member of First Baptist Church in Jennings, where she and Dewey walked in faith with other congregation members. Her faith kept her strong during the afflictions she suffered in her later years. Magloria found comfort in Isaiah 41:17-20, a passage that represented God’s enduring promise even when situations seem hopeless.

Magloria is survived by her husband, Dewey Lynn Sonnier (Lake Arthur), her daughter Tracie Lynn Klumpp and husband Michael (Basile), her son Scott William Sonnier and wife Melinda (Lake Arthur), her grandchildren Kade Parker, Naomi Parker, Cassie Doucet, Alexis Sonnier, Noah Klumpp, Colby Sonnier, Maggie Klumpp and her three great-grandchildren.

Services for Magloria will be held at Matthews and Son Funeral Home on June 10, 2023, at 10:00 AM led by Pastor Eric Sonnier of First Baptist Church of Jennings. Magloria will be laid to rest at Greenwood Cemetery.

Visitation will be held at Matthews & Son Funeral Home in Jennings, LA on Friday, June 9th from 5:00 PM until 9:00 PM. The family request that visitation resume on Saturday, June 10th at 8:00 AM until the time of her funeral service at 10:00 AM.
