

Manson Joseph Adams Sr.

October 27, 1960 - June 1, 2026

It is with great sadness that the family of Mr. Manson Joseph Adams, Sr., 65, announce his passing on Monday, June 1, 2026, at the Legacy Nursing Home in Plaquemine, LA. In accordance with his wishes, cremation will take place and a memorial service will be held at a later date.

Born on October 27, 1960, in Anahuac, TX to the late Mr. Oneal Adams and Mrs. Effie Adams. Manson lived a life defined by hard work, dedication, love for his family and friends, and the simple pleasures of life. He spent many years working as a garbage truck driver, a job he approached with pride and responsibility. Through his work he served his community faithfully. When he was not working, Manson enjoyed spending time outdoors, especially fishing. He also loved cooking and visiting with family and friends. Nothing made him happier than firing up the grill and preparing a great barbecue for those he loved. His gatherings were filled with laughter, good food, and cherished memories. A longtime CB radio enthusiast, he was known on the airwaves by his handle, "Funky Truckers." He loved connecting with fellow radio operators, sharing stories and making friends wherever the conversation led. Manson also held a talented hobby of building remote-control models. He spent countless hours building and operating remote-control boats, planes, and motorcycles. His creativity and patience were evident in every project he completed. Above all, Manson treasured his family. He was a loving husband, father and grandfather whose kindness, humor and generous spirit touched everyone who knew him. His wisdom, stories and unwavering love will be deeply missed and forever remembered.

Manson is survived by his daughters, Effie Demolle (Lance Fruge) and Crystal Adams (Charles Chambers); sons, Adam Adams (Jessica) and Manson Joseph Adams, Jr.; sixteen grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Oneal Adams and Effie Adams; one son, Mason John Adams; one daughter, Wanda Adams; and his siblings.

The family would like to extend a special thank you to the doctors and staff of Legacy Nursing Home.

Arrangements have been entrusted to Matthews Funeral Home JENNINGS, 511 North Cutting Avenue Jennings, LA 70546
