“ Dear Family, I am Harriet Adam's daughter Jeannie. We lived one block from your house. I have so many happy memories of being with you two and your mom. I have always treasured her in my heart. I will not be able to attend the service because of a back surgery I had yesterday. If so I would be the soprano belting out. How great thou art and I'll Fly Away in her honor and great love she had for God.
