

Margie N. Dupuis

January 1, 1933 - June 21, 2010

Born in Roanoke in 1933, She graduated from Roanoke High School & Sowela Tech. She married Delton Dupuis and they had 2 children. She had a long fulfilling career at Calcasieu Marine national Bank and Hibernia in Jennings and Lake Charles. She was a member of Ladies Altar Society, Catholic Daughter's, JALH Pink Ladies and Business and Professional Women's Association for several years. She was named Catholic Daughter of the year in 2007. Margie was a gifted orator, often reading at masses, and she was honored to pray the Rosary at many funeral services for friends and strangers alike. She was a kind and gracious lady to anyone she met. Her memories and love are in our hearts forever and always. Those left to mourn her loss and cherish her memory include her husband, Delton Dupuis of Jennings; one son, Michael Dupuis and wife Judy of Jennings; one daughter, Sharon D. Hensley and fiancée Dave Foote, Jr. of Lafayette; four grandchildren, Mitchell Hensley & wife Amanda of Atlanta, GA, Hollie Hensley of Jennings, Kelli Hensley of Jennings, and Dana Gott and husband Todd of Jennings; six great grandchildren, Hali Penticost , Jayden LeGros, Kylon Leckelt, Cassidy & Keagan Richard all of Jennings, and Emaline Hensley of Atlanta, GA; former son-in-law, Ralph Hensley. Now she rests in Heaven with her beloved parents, Claude and Mae Andrepont LeBlanc and two brothers, Milton and Sherman LeBlanc. Serving as pallbearers to honor her memory are, Mitchell Hensley, Leland Dupuis, Paul Dupuis, Ralph Hensley, Timothy LeBlanc and John Phillip Dupuis. Those serving as honorary pallbearers are David Foote, Jr., Keagan Richard, Albert Oubre, Jeff LeGros and Jonathon Mouton. Donations may be made to help the family cover final expenses.

“ Mike & Sharon,

Your families are in our thoughts & prayers in this time of sorrow. Keeping GOD first will help heal the sadness. I know ya'll were not ready to let her go, but GOD needed her to help keep my dad & Uncle Milton out of trouble. She is now with her Mom, Dad & brothers. We love ya'll. Vicky & Jada Hebert
