“ Years ago, I met Maurice when I was passing through Jennings on my way back to Texas with my band. He handed me a pamphlet and we exchanged in conversation. I never got rid of the pamphlet and opened it today to read it again. I figured I'd look him up to find out he has returned to the Lord. Prayers for his family, friends and those who knew him best.

I did not know him that well but every time me and my Mimi would go to church he would be over there. He would tell me, my brother, and my sister, and my Mimi how beautiful we are and it actually would make me feel happy. He was a good man with a big heart and I'm praying for him and his family every night. He is in a good place now that he would call home
