R.I.P., Mr. Mike...Heaven gained a good man. I will miss seeing you when David and I would go to 4:30 mass on Saturdays. You always went out of your way to help us moms when we needed something while planning events at OLI... You will be greatly missed by everyone who had the honor of knowing you...

Mr. Mike was the sweetest man...he would clean my classroom every day and we always would chat about something! His talks helped me wind down after a hectic day. I have good memories of him and he will surely be missed.

“ 18-20 years ago at OLI, Mr. Mike convinced my class that a leprechaun was on campus on St. Patrick's Day. We didn't believe him at first, but when we returned from recess, all of our desks were turned over. Mr. Mike told us it must have been the leprechaun. He never did admit responsibility, but I'm pretty sure heaven gained a "leprechaun" this week.

It's funny how seemingly irrelevant memories like that stick with us. Rest in peace, Mr. Mike and prayers to the family.

“ Mr. Mike gave many years to Our Lady Immaculate School. I don't know how many times I asked him if he could do this or that for me. I thought he did very well with having so many teachers, mostly women, asking him to help them. My sincere sympathies to Karen, Jonathon, Seth, Mikey and Michaela.

“ He was a wonderful man and had my heart from day 1 of my 44 years. My best memory of him was that when I was little he would grab me by my ankles and tickle my feet with his beard. Being the first of the nieces and nephews I was very spoiled and had all of the boys to myself for many years. I was blessed and proud to be able to call him my Uncle. What a gift that God gave this world when this man was born. May he rest in loving peace and let us rejoice that he will be able to once again be with maw maw and paw paw Deaux.
