Michael Stolzle

Jennings: Michael Stolzle, 67, unexpectedly passed away Friday, July 24, 2020 from a heart attack suffered two months earlier. He was being treated at Baylor Hospital, Dallas, Texas. Michael spent his life as an engineer, focused on digital processing and embedded software development. During his career he traveled throughout the United States working with corporations including Boeing, Lockheed, Stryker and others. Michael was virtually a mathematical savant, reading mathematics books for sheer pleasure, referring to equations and formulas as 'elegant'. He is survived by son, Brent Stolzle, Atlanta Georgia, Partner, Ginger Williams, Dallas and three brothers Brent (Margaret), David (Mary) and Rick Stolzle and many cousins, nephews and nieces. Services, led by Rev. Walter, will be held at Jennings United Methodist Church, Saturday, August 1 at 10:00 a.m. A family visitation will be at 9:00 a.m. that morning at the church. Interment will be immediately after the service at Pinehill Cemetery, Iowa, LA.
