“ To Mr. Thibodeaux's family and friends: I am so sorry to hear of your loss. I did not know Michael but I do know how sad of a time this is. I have lost many who were very close to me. In time, the pain will lessen but you will always miss him. For now, I pray that each of you can find comfort and strength from your sweet memories of him and most of all from the Holy Bible. The Bible gives us much hope of seeing our dear ones again. (John 5:28 & 29 and Revelation 21:3 & 4) With deepest sympathy...
