“ Ms. Aline, I'm saddened to hear of the loss of your mother but I rejoice in knowing that she is now with Heavenly Father, safe from all pain and limitations. There is definitely a brighter spot in heaven with her passing and she goes to join the others that she has missed for so long. It's never easy when we lose a loved one from our sight, but we never lose them from our heart and that sustains us until we meet again. Much love and many blessings to you and yours.
