

Pearly Mae Thimmesch

April 11, 2009

Mrs. Pearly passed away peacefully surrounded by her loving family Tuesday afternoon at her Jennings residence. She was born in Ville Platte, La to the late Claude and Rose Mae Fontenot Johnson. Mrs. Pearly was a retired clerk in a department store. She was also a member of the Catholic Daughters. She enjoyed planting flowers and bringing beauty of the small things in life. She also enjoyed crocheting and spending time with her grandchildren. Mrs. Pearly loved helping others and bringing joy to everyones life. She will be greatly missed by all. Survivors include her loving husband, Pat Thimmesch of Jennings; one son, Ernest Bertrand and his wife Beverly of Eunice; two daughters, Evelyn and her husband John Guidry of Lake Arthur and Diana West of New York; two brothers, Paul Lee Johnson of Eunice and Frank Johnson of Lafayette; and six grandchildren and seven great grandchildren. Preceded in death by her parents. Pallbearers will include: John and Chad Guidry, David Deshotel, Damion Johnson, Aric Guidry, and Gerrad Theriot. Honorary pallbearers will include: Frank and Paul Johnson, Damion Johnson, Jr. and Quintin Theriot.

Tribute Wall

“ Pearly Mae Thimmesch

January 28, 2023 at 04:12 PM

“ *To: Nanny,
Sorry, I couldn't be there in body but i was there in spirit. I love You.
To my Dad, Uncle, Cousins and Family I love and miss yall. My heart is with yall. May god bring you peace, and have comfort knowing that she is singing and dancing with the angels.
Yall Little Porky
Russell Johnson*

Russell Johnson - April 14, 2009 at 07:39 PM

“ *Nan, My Sister, My Friend, My Rock...You raised and loved me as one of your own children. You taught me to Love Life, Love Myself, and Most of all to Love and Trust in GOD, no matter what happens in my life. For this I am and will always be most grateful. Be at Peace my Loving Sister. I Love and will Miss You Deeply.
Your Loving Brother.
Jun*

*To my Neices and Nephew I want to say I Love You all. Don't Grieve to long as she would not want that and remember that she is with the Ones she Lost and Loved.
Jun*

Frank Johnson - April 09, 2009 at 12:06 PM