“ Becky was a good friend and a neighbor. I first met Becky about 32 years ago. After I graduated high school I went to work at Popeyes in Jennings. Becky was my manager there. She was very well liked. I remember she was dating Arthur Melton, her now husband, and she loved him so. She talked about him all the time. Becky was such a sweetheart and a character that could put a smile on anyone's face. She was like the life of the party. She was easygoing and always making people laugh. You will be dearly missed Becky. Rest in Heavenly peace my dear friend. ❤️🌹
