

Reginald Longman

August 5, 1925 - October 20, 2012

Reginald B. Longman Jennings: It's with heavy hearts that the family of Reginald B. Longman announces his passing at Tulane Medical Center in New Orleans, LA from complications of pancreatic cancer on Sunday, October 14. A memorial service will be held on Saturday, October 20, 2012 at 2:00 PM in celebration of Mr. Longman's life. The gathering of family and friends will continue after his service until 3:30 PM. R. B. "Sonny" Longman was born August 5, 1925 in Jennings, LA. Sonny graduated from Jennings High School and attended Texas A & M and USC. He graduated from McNeese State University with a degree in electrical engineering. He served in the Army military police during World War II. While in California, he met a Louisiana girl, Mary Angie Hiter, and they married in 1948. Together they moved to Jennings and reared four children. Sonny was an Exalted Leader of the Jennings Elk Club and also served as a parliamentarian who loved Robert's Rules of Order. He loved reading history and philosophy, watching football, and debating politics. Chess was his game. Sonny was preceded in death by his father, Reggie and his mother, Mamie; his son, Bill and his son, Dirk. He leaves his loving wife, Mary of Jennings; his daughter, Mary Ann and her husband, John McCoppin of Coral Springs, FL; his son, Richard and his wife Debbie; and their sons, Jacob and Christopher of Ponchatoula, LA; his grandson, Scott and his wife DaNita; and their sons, Alyster and Christian of Jacksonville, FL; his granddaughter, Brandi and her sons, Bryce and Nathaniel of Slidell, LA; and his niece, Regilyn and her husband, Glenn Carter; and their children,

J.W., Jean, John, and Jeremy of Jennings.

Tribute Wall

“ Reginald Longman

January 28, 2023 at 04:12 PM