

Robert Fruge

April 29, 1941 - September 1, 2015

Robert Dale Fruge

Jennings: On September 1, 2015, Robert Dale Fruge, known as Bob to all his friends, joined his Savior and loved ones in heaven. He was born on April 29, 1941, to Leon and Isabelle Fruge in Jennings, LA. He worked for years in the oil industry, construction, and later as a commercial fisherman.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his wife Elaine Fruge, and his niece Melanie Newman.

He is survived by his children Regina F. LeFer and Wendell Fruge. He is also survived by his sister Renee Smith, his son in law Randy LeFer, and his precious grandchildren that he loved more than himself Heather L. Moore, Dylan Robert LeFer, Liliane Fruge, and Leon Fruge. He is also survived by his great granddaughter Paisley Elaine Moore.

Bob was a generous man who gave freely of his possessions and his time to others. He never met a stranger and loved to talk and laugh. Cancer stole his voice but not his spirit. He found other ways to communicate his love and laughter.

Before he got too sick he said, "I've had a good life, a good little family, and a lot of fun."
