“ I was so sorry to hear that my Uncle Robert had passed away. He and Roger lived life to the fullest and had so many stories of their lives in the outdoors and their various business adventures. I especially remember them talking about a Preacher Wainwright and playing the Ouija Board. Robert (I was raised calling all my aunts and uncles by their first names) was my idea of a manly man, loving life but loving his family as much as possible. I just finished double cataract surgery and can;t see because of macular degeration so I can't make the services, Aunt Eula Mae our prayers are with you and and family, and this is sent from me, my cajun wife Janice and my Mom Kathleen who is in the hospital but will be home in a few days. We love all you Semmes
