“ Mrs. Ramona was my babysitter growing up in Morse, LA. She was the most kind and loving person. When I was little she and Mr. Nocko would cook gumbo for us. Sometimes they would visit where we lived in Hathaway, just to cook a gumbo for us. Growing up, she often made rice and milk, I loved it! It was always a special treat when I would visit and she would fix that for me. So many wonderful memories with her.

May she now rest in heaven ❤️
