“ Cousin(that's how we always addressed each other) I miss you so much. I will miss you calling me to check on me. We would always bring her a plate of food when we cooked something she liked and she always have something to give us even if was just a soda. And don't dare refuse it. She was like a second mother to us. I will miss her cures for anything that was bothering you. I just wasn't ready for you to go. But I thank God for all the amazing memories and laughter. 💔

“ Wendell, John and Derrick...Y'all know “Mama” was “my girl”. We could laugh and talk for hours...we could not see or hear from one another for a while and pick up right where we left off...and I consider that a treasured friendship. I loved her as a mother. I loved her as a sister. But, SHE will forever be my soul bestie! ❤️
