“ Che, Chris, Tina, and Family I Know that this is a hard day for you'll, Rosella's first birthday without her here. I can only imagine what you'll are going through. I told her Happy Birthday this morning and offered some prayers for her. I have so many special memories of Rosella. We had some great times growing up. I know that you'll know what a special person she was and I hopes it helps some, for you'll to know that everyone knew that about her and loved her. We will all keep her in ours hearts forever. My prayers are with you'll. Love to all, Phyllis

“ Mr Che-Che, Tina, Chris, Monte, Freddie, all the grandchildren and the great-grandchildren....Where do I start. She was a remarkable woman. She made us feel like her children and our children like her own grandchildren. I'm so sorry I could not be there for all of you at this time. My thoughts and prayers are with you always and I will never forget her. May your sorrow heal in time. She will forever be the angel in your lives watching over you.

“ Dear Che, Chris and Tina:

I am thinking of you during this difficult time.

As you grieve, know that I am remembering you and honoring the memory of “Rosella”.

I will always remember her with caring thoughts and loving memories. Words seem inadequate to express the sadness I feel about her death. I will love her forever for the person she was to me and everyone she knew. She was such a very kind and wonderful person. She is deeply missed.

Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal.

Although it's difficult today to see beyond the sorrow, may looking back in memory help comfort you tomorrow. To live in hearts we leave behind is not to die.

You don't get over it, you just get through it. You don't get by it, because you can't get around it. It doesn't 'get better'; it just gets different. Everyday... Grief puts on a new face....

I know for certain that we never lose the people we love, even to death. They continue to participate in every act, thought and decision we make. Their love leaves an indelible imprint in our memories. We find comfort in knowing that our lives have been enriched by having shared their life and love.

My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. Please accept my deepest sympathy and warmest heartfelt condolences.

*With love and hugs,
Gwen*
