“ Hi, to our family always,. First let me say; I am so sorry that we just found out about her loss. Please forgive us for not keeping in touch more.I am so upset about this. I was married to Leonard.(Lynda).I was so afraid to call her & not hear her voice. I loved calling MaMaw Bergeaux. Hearing her voice when she answered the phone;hello;Mamaw it's Grebe. That is what I looked forward to when I called. She would say;Hey Grebe;is that you. It was like I was the only person in her heart. She was such a God loving person in my heart. She & PaPa; raised four beautiful boys. And they were blessed with Ethyl. She was so good to them.Her & Robert took such good care of them. They raised two beautiful children;Scotty & Bridget. Gee;but Claire;Brent; & I really loved all of them. Last time we went to visit I remember when Bridget & her little Bridgets came out of their house running to us. I said oh my God made more little Bridgets.They were so adorable like you Bridget. These are the memories we love & miss. I make rosaries;& will send one for both MaMaw & PaPa Bergeaux. Ethyl & Robert;will you put it on their graves for me? Will call you later. I know they are surrounded by God & all of His angels. St.Michael;St.Raphael;&St.Gabriel.Gods three Archangels;who are in charge of all nine choirs of Angels in heaven. God bless all of the Bergeaux family.We love & miss you all.

“ I was married to Merlin Miller and attended many family reunions with him and our children. Aunt Ruby (I still think of her that way.) was very dear to me and to Merlin. When our children were young, we always looked forward to her wonderful melt-in-your mouth sweet rolls! Peace, Geneva Thomas

“ I can not say how much I am going to miss that gleam that she had in her eye when she was happy. I have been so blessed by each and every minute that we spent together. What a beautiful legacy she leaves behind full of faith and love. I know that the angels must be singing to welcome her home. She has changed my life forever. Thank you for sharing her with us. I will miss her dearly.
