

Russell Joseph Hanks

January 7, 2009

Mr. Hanks was a pipe fitter by trade. He loved to cook, watch football, and construct different items. He will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him. Survivors include his spouse, Laurice Morvant Hanks of Jennings; one son, Keith Hanks and wife Tina of Iota; two daughters, Cynthia LaBouve and husband Richard, Jr. of Evangeline and Shelley Swire and husband Asa of Grand Chenier; one brother, Roland Hanks and wife Deanna of Crowley; five sisters, Velma Stutes and husband Douglas of Midland, Shirley Dupuis and husband Curlis of Midland, Margie Hanks also of Midland, Rose Marie Broussard and husband Roger of Crowley, and Diana Duhon and husband Emile of Crowley; and nine grandchildren and five great grandchildren. Preceded in death by his parents; and his baby brother, Nolan Hanks.

Tribute Wall

“ Russell Joseph Hanks

January 28, 2023 at 04:12 PM

“ Mrs. Laurice,

I am so sorry to hear about Mr. Red, He and my dad will now be together in Heaven....

When my dad fell sick, He told Pam to call ya'll to let Mr. Red know where he was gonna be... He really liked You & Mr. Red. We also appreciate everything you all have done for my Father...

You all will be in Our Family thoughts and Prayers through this difficult time of need.

Liz, Linda, Pam, & Curleen Blanchard

Curleen Blanchard Reed - January 06, 2009 at 06:09 PM