“ I barely knew Butsy, but he made me feel like family. Being friends with his daughter, Julie, I came down to LA and stayed at Butsy's house on two separate occasions. The first words out of his mouth when I met him was "you hungry, boo?" He always made sure good food was on the table, and he was never without a smile or a good story. I'm deeply saddened with the news of his passing. Y'all are in my prayers.
