“ Papa it is a struggle everyday....I miss you and I feel as if I may never be near the man you were but, I've met 5 kids and a woman who have given me the courage to slowly change my ways for the past 5 years.... Te Amo y recuerdo cada dia....

“ Oh how I will miss that sweet smile. Tonio was so sweet and mild mannered (mostly) he was a true friend, and was ready to help in any way, never wanting to take advantage of others, he worked for what he had. I know he is with Jesus and his father and mother -in-laws. so my prayers are not for him but for his precious wife amy who loved her man with abandon and for their son tristen who will miss his poppy. I pray for peace and guidance in this dreadful time and know that hundreds of christian people are falling on our knees crying and praying for your family. Love, the heberts
