“ *To Sean's Family and Friends
You have our sincere condolences for your loss.
Sean was a rare kind and giving person.
He made us feel welcome at our first rally and help us with our water heater.
He and Miss Molly were such a wonderful team.
His Casita friends will miss him, but always think of him, especially when gumbo is mentioned.

“ *We had the pleasure of being Sean's neighbors at the first River Valley Casita Rally. Thomas helped Sean with a flat tire on his way in, and Sean returned the favor by "running sound" for Thomas when he entertained (and made him sound really good!) The Casita/FGRV community has lost a good friend. Our condolences to Sean's family and friends and of course, Miss Molly.

“ Sean was a kind, generous, and fun loving friend and an ambassador for all things Louisiana and Cajun. He loved his family, friends, and his precious Miss Molly. He left us with fond memories of rallies, caravans, sightseeing, card playing, emailing, good food and mischief. In this world, he is missed and heaven had better look out because here comes Sean.

“ What a great sight to see----Sean and Miss Molly at the Casita rallys. Our pup, Rose, would get so excited when she saw Molly. Sean never saw a stranger and enjoyed his friends fully. Always so thoughtful and considerate. We are so sorry to lose our friend and our deepest sympathy is sent to his family. As an LSU grad, I felt a kinship to the La. guy! We will be attending the Gulf Coast rally ---- and he'll be there. Donna and Charles Carr, Trenton, Tn

“ *To Sean's Family
We also met Sean through the Casita Gatherings and as others have mentioned, we always looked forward to spending time with him and Miss Molly. He was truly a very special person that seemed to never meet a stranger. He made all feel welcome. We will miss his antics and his laughter. Our Miss Gracie will also miss the many treats he and Miss Molly shared with her. Our thoughts, our prayers, and our hearts go out to all of you.*

“ Sean was our tenant for 16 years. We will miss his and Miss Molly's strolls down the driveway and their visits, his eyes and ears for unusual goings-on in the neighborhood, and his assistance in keeping up the good appearance of his and our lawns.

“ We met Sean Last Fall at a Casita rally. Five minutes after meeting him and miss Molly, it was as if we had known each other for years. What a terrific person he was to be around. I don't think he knew the definition of stranger. We know you will miss hin dearly. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ He visited at our home in Florida and we camped with him returning from a trip to Texas. We always went out for Mexican food together as a kind of ritual. Once the three of us camped in northern Georgia. He always spoke fondly of his Father and Mother. Sean was a bright star in this world. Words cannot express our sorrow.

“ My heart ached when Michelle called yesterday morning and I heard the news of Sean's death.

Words seem so inadequate, but my wife and I have a heart filled with love and sympathy on the loss of your beloved son.

Sean was a talented, caring person and dearly loved by everyone whose life he touched in the Casita world. But for me, he was even more. He was a rare and cherished friend. Through our friendship, I learned that there is nothing in this world that is more important than helping others and making others feel that they are truly welcome. As I write, my head is full with precious memories. He always and I mean always went out of his way to help others with their Casita. He was preparing to fix gumbo for 100 people the first week of December at our gathering in Matagorda Texas. Last year when we all met in Matagorda there was no real agenda but Sean had one! He made a big pot of gumbo and went to each campsite and invited everyone to his trailer to enjoy his gumbo and fellowship. So many folks raved about this gathering at his trailer and of course his scrumptious gumbo.

We had a lot of fun together creating his gathering website GulfCoastSpringFling.com. He was so looking forward to this gathering. When there were 20 trailers registered he was tickled pink. At this time there are now over 35 trailers registered. We will plan on continuing this gathering in his absence and in his honor. When he was out camping with his trailer with Miss Molly he always had a leash on her to abide by park rules but he never held the leash and she was free as a bird. After all the park rules only stated that all pets be on a leash but never stated that you had to hold the leash.

In all seriousness I know you will miss him deeply, but I also know that you recognize the blessings of the beautiful years you shared. If you need anything in the realm of the Casita world I would be honored to help as your ambassador.

My prayers and thoughts are with your family.

“ We also met Sean and Miss Molly through our Casita friends. He was a giving, friendly person who didn't know what a stranger was. Although we are saddened that he his gone, we are better people for having the chance to know him.

“ Dear Family, We Met Sean & Miss Molly through the "Casita" Club. We quickly learned to love them both & looked forward to being with them at the Matagorda rally at the end of this month. Sean was the prime example of how to face the trials of this earthly life. His warmth, love & sincere smile will be long missed. Sean was quick to help others. Everything he did was first class & we will never again be able to eat good Gumbo without thinking of Sean. With much sadness we will miss his unique brand of love. Sincerely,
Don & Carol Curtis.

“ Uncle Billy and Aunt Mary,

I was deeply saddened when I received the call about Sean. At your 50th anniversary last year, I spent some talking time with Sean, and regardless of his situation, he had such a positive outlook on life. This really stuck with me and it's something I think of often. I know he will be missed by all who knew him. You are all in my thoughts and prayers.
